

Muskan Kumar

“I Dreamed a Dream of a Brand-New World”

I dreamed a dream in the quiet stillness.
Echoes of silence filled the dark, starry night sky.
My dream spoke to me,
I knew that she wished me no harm,

My dream gives me delight, happiness, and she gives me cheer,
She transports me to a world where war isn't spoken of or seen,
A place where peace and pleasure join hands,
A world where Christians, Jews, Buddhists, and Hindus live in harmony,
They all sing hymns together,
Their songs are elegant and free,

No fights, no worries, no fear,
A pleasing place where anyone can be anything, and do anything,

My dream embeds a good mood within me,
She makes me smile.
I feel jubilant, phenomenal and free,
I am in a wonderful world,
A great place to be,

I dreamed a dream on a dark, starry night,
I dreamed a dream with no fear, only peace and happiness,
A dream where the smiling faces of children light up the day as they run and play,

My dream speaks to me,
She declares this to be a blissful place,
A peaceful place, a place without worry,
A prodigious place to live, to be free, and not be judged for who you are,
A world of differences, diversity and kindness.
A world with helpful people,
A world where all want to live,

I dreamed a dream in the quiet stillness.
Echoes of silence filled the dark, starry night sky,
My dream spoke to me.